

Arkansas Genealogical Society 2017 Fall Seminar

Featuring D. Joshua Taylor
& Dr. Daniel Littlefield
October 20-21, 2017

Program

Friday, October 20, 2017

Both Presentations by Dr. Daniel Littlefield

5:00PM Registration (Vendors Open 5:00PM - 9:00PM)

6:00PM To Be or Wannabe? That is the Question - How to develop the proper attitude toward researching a Native American ancestor. We will analyze why some of the family stories may or may not have a historical basis.

7:00PM Break

7:30PM There is More to Search Than the Dawes Rolls - We will talk about the Dawes Rolls but our emphasis will be on other groups of Indian records for family history research. The focus will be on the Cherokees but some emphasis will be placed on other tribes with similar types of records.

Saturday, October 21, 2017

All Presentations by D. Joshua Taylor

8:00AM Registration (Vendors Open 8:00AM - 3:00PM)

9:00AM Bridging the Gap: Finding Ancestors in the United States between 1780 and 1830 - Have you lost an ancestor between 1780 and 1830? Often connecting our ancestors to colonists can be quite a task, learn how to employ probate, land, census, tax, and other compiled records to help bridge the gap.

10:00AM Break

10:30AM Printed Legends and Missing Footnotes: Dissecting 19th and 20th Century Compiled Genealogies - Discover the methods used in the 19th and early 20th century to create a compiled genealogy, and how to ensure its information does not lead you down the wrong trail.

11:30AM Lunch

1:00PM AGS Annual Meeting

1:30PM The Web, the World and YOU! (Advanced Internet Researching) - Tired of using the same internet sites over and over without any success? Frustrated because you are unable to find exactly what you want? Learn how to evaluate websites and use free tools on the internet to enrich your experience while surfing the web!

2:30PM Break

3:00PM New Tools and Ideas in Research - The field of genealogy is constantly changing and evolving.
